STRIATO

The Striato pen celebrates the graphical play on stripes that defines the collection, interpreted here in its most luxurious expression. Its generous, sculptural silhouette is crowned with an oversized cap wrapped in a pattern of progressively tightening pinstripes, creating a sense of movement and visual precision. The result is a resolutely luxurious writing instrument with a distinctive graphical twist, where refined pattern work meets timeless elegance.

This graphic interplay forms a modern interpretation of the timeless herringbone pattern, giving the pen a sense of movement and structure. The minimal matte gunmetal plating reinforces its clean geometry, resulting in a piece that feels confidently modern and distinctly architectural.

STRIADE
